

Made, Good—
As We Could—
And we don't believe anyone
"knows how"
better than we.

A really superb quality
flour—
Milled from choicest grade, hard, Northern Spring
wheat.

We know you'll be pleased with—

"DULUTH IMPERIAL"
FLOUR

E. T. & H. K. IDE, Jobbers.

Concord.

Herbert Gray of St. Johnsbury was a guest at Abby Gray's over Sunday.

Harry May has been engaged to teach a singing school at Lyndon under the direction of the Village Improvement society and begins the school Friday night.

Mrs. Lena Arnold of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday at Hosmer Smith's.

Mrs. Asa Gage and son of Iowa are visiting at Alvah Belden's and Miss Josie Belden of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with her parents.

Harold French is located in Bangor, Me., for the present.

Mrs. E. J. Williams is entertaining her father, Mr. Hatch, of Littleton.

Mrs. Alex Kerr has had her residence connected with the Citizens Telephone.

Miss Helen Reed entertained two of her classmates, Misses Agnes Morrison and Vera Goodrich, of St. Johnsbury at her home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gero of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday in town. Miss Hazel Douglas will spend the winter with them.

Joshua Stevens of North Woodstock, N. H., spent the past week with relatives in town.

Mrs. Alfred Dodge picked a strawberry blossom in her field Thursday.

Miss Iva Grant of East Concord spent Sunday with friends in town.

Rev. Grant Van Blarcom exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. McIntire of Woodsville last Sunday.

John Stiles boasts of a hen that has laid an egg measuring 6 1/2 by 8 1/2 inches and weighing 3 1/2 ounces.

Miss Pontie Hill is enjoying a trip to New York.

Mrs. Herbert Quimby and daughters have gone to Sherbrooke, P. Q., after spending several weeks here with relatives.

The fall examination of teachers will be held at J. W. Memorial Building, Nov. 23-24.

William Fuller of Claremont, N. H., is visiting his sons at Miles Pond.

Ed Fuller of Miles Pond has been spending a short time with friends in Boston.

William Grant spent the past week with relatives in East Concord.

Mrs. Harry H. May entertained the four teachers of the J. W. Memorial school at dinner last Thursday.

Remember the pink and white supper at the Methodist church this evening.

There is to be an "Old Folks" ball in I. O. O. F. hall this evening. Music by Grant's orchestra.

Mrs. Della Quimby spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Powers, at Lyndonville.

Quite a delegation from here were at Wells River Wednesday to attend the district meeting of the O. E. S.

The box party given by Concord Grange Wednesday evening was unfortunately scheduled for the same evening as the long hoped for rain and the public in general preferred to remain at home. Consequently the attendance was very much reduced, but what it lacked in numbers it made up in enthusiasm, as the 15 boxes were sold at auction for $18.35. Music was furnished for a promenade.

The Halloween party given by the Y. P. C. U. at the Universalist church was a success.

Town Representative L. J. Patch was at home over Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Sternberg and Miss Florence Winchester were riding with Mrs. E. W. Garfield one day last week when a holdback gave away, letting the wagon against the horse, which ran down a steep hill. Mrs. Sternberg jumped from the wagon, striking the back of her head and was very seriously injured, being unable to be moved home for several days from Mr. King's, where she was carried directly after the accident. She is now thought to be gaining.

The others were thrown out by the wagon tipping over in Mr. King's yard and escaped with only bad bruises and a shaking up.

John Holloway of St. Johnsbury recently visited his father, W. E. Holloway.

Elin Celley and Miss Gertrude Baylaw of Peacham were married Friday at his mother's home here by Rev. N. A. Ross.

Hexamethylenetetramine.

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the most valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy.

Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine. Takes Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady. C. C. Bingham.

The new Ayer's Hair Vigor will certainly do your hair, because, first of all, it destroys the germs which are the original cause of dandruff. Having given this aid, nature completes the cure. The scalp is restored to a perfectly healthy condition.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

PEACHAM.

The senior class at the Academy gave a reception Friday evening to the other pupils, teachers and invited guests, 150 were invited. For entertainment they gave a play entitled "Our Servants." Light refreshments were served, and a promenade closed the program.

Singing school opened Thursday with H. H. May as instructor.

A game of base ball was played Thursday afternoon between the Academy boys and a West Barnet team, scoring 8 to 6 for the Academy boys.

Charles Stephens of South Peacham had a severe accident Thursday evening. Hearing some disturbance among the horses at Frank Kimball's barn, he went out with a lantern and received a kick in the back from one of the horses which rendered him insensible. His lantern was smashed but fortunately was put out. He was found later among the bed of leaves which would easily have caught fire. He was badly hurt but at present is doing as well as can be expected.

Miss Lena Blanchard spent three days at St. Johnsbury last week.

Mrs. Margaret Mackey and her two little daughters, Marion and Elizabeth, are visiting friends in town.

Miss Sue Williams has returned from Springfield where she has spent several weeks with her sister.

Miss Mary Bailey and Miss Ruth McLochin are spending Ruth's vacation at Lyndon.

The Ladies' Social Circle of the Methodist church will serve a dinner at their vestry Thursday.

There was a pretty wedding at the Methodist parsonage Tuesday, Oct. 27, when Fred Macomber from Isle La Motte and Miss Jessie Woodworth from Westfield were united in marriage by Rev. P. N. Granger. Both were former parishioners of Mr. Granger's. They came on the morning stage, a wedding dinner was served, the ceremony was at 3 p. m. and they left on the afternoon train.

Owen Somers is on the sick list. Mrs. Somers is still with her daughter at Barnet, but is slowly gaining.

There will be a piano recital given by pupils of Mrs. Ellen Nye, assisted by the Peacham Male Quartet, Safford Bayley and "Rosie Love Johnson" and her piano, Tuesday evening, Nov. 10, at Academy hall. Admission, 15 cents, children 10 cents, reserved seats 25 cents.

The school at the Corner district closed Friday.

The buildings of Chas. D. Harvey were burned to the ground Monday morning before light. This was one of the best set of buildings at East Peacham. A chimney burned out the evening before and they watched it until it was supposed to be out. About 3 a. m. it broke out again. The house was mostly cleared.

B. U. Wells, West Danville, sells 50 pounds good, hard Winter Onions for 75 cents, and pays 32 cents a dozen for fresh laid eggs. His stock of Winter Underwear is the largest in this section, all grades and prices.

If You Are Over Fifty Read This.

Most people past middle-age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders which Foley's Kidney Remedy would cure. Stop the drain on the vitality and restore needed strength and vigor. Commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy today. C. C. Bingham.

The Ladies' Aid society held a successful Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner, Saturday evening and in spite of the unfavorable weather a good number attended. There were many games suitable for the evening, ghosts, etc. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Katherine Bowker is spending a few days with relatives in Lyndonville.

Mrs. Coles spent Sunday with her son, who is teaching the high school here.

Howard Coburn left for Meriden the last of the week for the winter.

Mrs. Albert Morgan and son spent a few days with relatives in Jefferson, N. H., last week.

Isaac Hopkinson and two men are pressing hay for John and Walter Silsby.

Mrs. H. M. Day visited in St. Johnsbury, Saturday.

John Emerson of Lancaster was in town on business part of last week.

The annual meeting of the Aqueduct Co. was held at M. D. Bowker's store, Friday evening. James Phelps was elected president, and M. D. Bowker secretary and treasurer.

The Ladies' Aid fair will be held Friday evening of this week. A chicken pie supper will be served from six o'clock to eight and there will be many useful things for sale including aprons, bags and fancy articles.

Raw Lunges.

When the lungs are sore and inflamed, the germs of pneumonia and consumption find lodgement and multiply. Foley's Honey and Tar kills the cough germs, cures the most obstinate racking cough, heals the lungs, and prevents serious results. The genuine is in the yellow package. C. C. Bingham.

EAST BARNET.

Charles Elliott from this place, Sam Higgins from West Barnet, and James Pinney from Passumpsic, who have been on a hunting trip at Maidstone for five weeks, returned home last week safe and sound and well satisfied with the game caught. The three caught 21 foxes, 12 sables, 15 minks, 18 skunks, 33 muskrats, two fisher cats, one coon and two bobcats and brought home 15 pounds of nice spruce gum apiece.

Don't forget that the Ladies' Chapel society will have a chicken pie dinner at noon and a chicken pie supper and promenade Friday evening in chapel hall, at East Barnet. Music will be furnished by the Laughlin Orchestra from St. Johnsbury.

George Nelson is having a bath room put into his house, Bert Galbraith's men doing the work.

Miss Ranney and her scholars, Belle Gammell, Marion Quimby, Merle Kendall, Frank and Ora Bailey, Della Ward and John Kendall, went to Montpelier, Thursday. Harold Gammell also went with them. Miss Swan from the Brook school went with two of her scholars, Pearl and Nelson Richards.

R. B. Gammell attended the Grand Lodge of the K. P. at Waterbury last week.

NORTH DANVILLE.

Death of Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett.

This whole community was shocked and saddened by the death of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Blodgett last week. Mr. Blodgett was taken sick with pneumonia, Tuesday, Oct. 20, and passed away early Saturday morning, Oct. 24. Mrs. Blodgett was taken sick with the same disease the day of her husband's death and only survived him by about 67 hours, passing away Monday evening, Oct. 26. Thomas G. Blodgett was born in Hardwick, Feb. 18, 1840. He was the son of the late Novatus Wayne and Loretta Bundy Blodgett and was one of a family of ten children of whom only two, Charles Blodgett of this place, and Mrs. W. H. H. Rollins of St. Johnsbury survive him.

When Thomas was quite a young boy his parents moved to this town and almost his entire life has been spent here living in several different places. In November, 1894, he bought the William Russell farm and had lived there until his death. March 11, 1866, he married Aurora Genevieve Stanton, and to them three children were born: Harlan Pillsbury of this place; Carrie Mabel, who married Alexis J. Russell, and who since her husband's death last May has made her home with her parents; and Ethel Abbie, Mrs. Edwin J. Sutor, who resides at Medford Hillside, Mass. Mr. Blodgett's occupation was farming and painting. He was a fine tenor singer and for 30 years was chorister at the Free Baptist church in this place. He entered into singing, with his whole heart and with a great deal of expression. In years past he taught singing school several winters. He was a good citizen, a kind and indulgent husband and father, and an accommodating neighbor. He will be missed in the church of which he had been a member for a long time of years, but in the home circle his voice will be missed the most.

Aurora Genevieve Stanton was born in Danville, June 24, 1843. Her parents were the late Jesse Blunt and Betsy Hill Stanton. She was the second in a family of eight children, of whom only three survive. They are L. C. and Jesse of this town and Mrs. H. W. Varnum of Cambridge. Mrs. Blodgett secured her education in the district school and St. Johnsbury Academy. Later she taught school for a good many terms and even after her marriage taught several terms, and her two oldest children have been to school to their mother several terms each. Almost her entire life was spent in this town. She was a good and faithful wife and mother, and a kind neighbor, always ready to lend a helping hand in sickness. She was for many years a valued member of the Free Baptist church and a constant attendant at the services. She was a woman that the community can ill afford to lose.

The double funeral was held from their late home Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock and was largely attended. Pastor Rev. B. P. Parker officiated and W. B. Atwood and E. R. Mackey rendered "Morning Light" and "Whisperings of Jesus." The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The bearers were L. C. and Jesse Stanton, H. P. Blodgett, H. W. Varnum, Charles Clifford, Charles Sanborn, John P. Weeks and E. M. Macey. Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett were buried in one grave.

Those called here from out of town by the death of Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Sutor of Medford Hillside, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Varnum of Cambridge, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Varnum of Barre, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. H. Rollins and Carl Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. E. Green and Miss Martha J. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blodgett, O. N. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. John McLean and Arthur Sutor of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Blodgett, Woodsville, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Dunn of Wheelock and Miss Mabel Sutor of Beche Plain, P. Q.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hickford and Mrs. John P. Weeks were called to Hardwick, Friday, to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. A. B. Owens. The remains were brought here for interment in the family lot beside her first husband, Rev. George H. Backford.

P. G. Berry, who has worked for F. E. Hickford for over three years, has finished work there and moved to Sheffield.

Winter blasts, causing pneumonia, pleurisy and consumption will soon be here. Cure your cough now, and strengthen your lungs with Foley's Honey and Tar. Do not risk starting the winter with weak lungs, when Foley's Honey and Tar will cure the most obstinate coughs and colds, and prevent serious results. C. C. Bingham.

LOWER WATERFORD.

Several from here attended the dance at the N. E. O. P. hall at Waterford Friday evening.

Samuel Morrison spent Saturday and Sunday at St. Johnsbury.

The Ladies' Circle will give a chicken pie dinner in the vestry, Wednesday, November 11.

Several from here attended the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Carpenter at West Littleton last week Monday evening and report a fine time.

The Ladies' Circle held their annual meeting in the vestry Wednesday afternoon. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. W. J. Morrison; vice presidents, Mrs. C. K. Phillips and Mrs. S. W. Bonnett; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. F. K. Blodgett; directresses, Mrs. F. C. Bullock, Miss Abbie Hale, Mrs. G. A. Ballou; entertainment committee, Mrs. G. K. Ramboor, Mrs. E. R. Goss.

The Mothers' Club met with Mrs. Floyd Blodgett, Friday afternoon. The subject was "A trip to Boston" and a very pleasant time was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Morrison and daughter of St. Johnsbury spent Saturday and Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Katherine Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Goss and Mr. and Mrs. Ellie Carpenter spent Sunday in Concord, guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cutting.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bowman visited friends in Concord last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bonnette visited their son Clarence in Passumpsic recently.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. C. C. Bingham.

EAST BURKE.

Mrs. Miles Bailey, who has been very sick from blood poisoning is more comfortable.

John Laverly has bought the Joseph Jacques farm and is moving onto it.

Mrs. Mary Humphrey Murkland of Barton visited her nephew, B. F. Humphrey, and other friends, last week.

Miss Ida Farmer is at her father's at Belmont Stock Farm.

There is to be a farewell reception at the Congregational vestry for Rev. O. E. Hardy to which all are cordially invited.

A large company went up from the village to attend the Halloween party at Charlie Leach's Saturday night.

The improvements are still progressing at the cemetery, but there will not be time to complete them before the ground freezes. The work already done is a great improvement and will be resumed again in the spring.

Volney Smith of Island Pond visited his sister, Mrs. Eleanor Phippen, at W. B. Goding's recently.

Marion Jeffrey was home from Goddard Seminary and spent Sunday with her parents here.

W. H. Jeffrey, who spent last week in the hospital at Montpelier, threatened with pneumonia, was able to come home Saturday.

Mrs. John Dasher is seriously ill with a complication of diseases.

The many friends of Miss Inez Humphrey, a former clerk in H. D. Webster's store, will be sorry to learn that she is in very poor health and it is feared she will be obliged to go to a hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jenkins have returned from their visit to Springfield, Mass.

Mrs. U. T. Davis has returned from her visit to Newport.

Tressie Gilson is visiting friends in Concord and Lunenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Gilson are keeping house for their son Alvah in the village.

George Counter of Megantic, Me., is visiting his brother W. J. Counter. Mr. Counter has not been here for seven years and finds many changes.

Mrs. Will Laverly of Lyndonville is visiting relatives here.

A. W. Priest is taking a vacation and Mr. Will of St. Johnsbury is tending the switch board at the Citizen's central.

E. A. Darling has returned to New York to vote for Taft.

Mr. Paquin has moved his family to Sherbrook, where he has a position as blacksmith in the new Fairbanks scale factory.

George Laverly has moved his family into the tenement near the cemetery.

Mrs. Philena Jenkins and her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, will move into the Burpee tenement, vacated by Mr. Paquin, as soon as some needed repairs are completed.

At Allen Hunter's auction Friday the farm was not sold.

Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Turner returned from their vacation Saturday night and there was a service in the Methodist church Sunday.

Rev. O. E. Hardy leaves here this week for his new appointment in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Edwin Underwood of St. Johnsbury has come to spend the winter with her son, William McNeil.

Absolute cleanliness and purity are two strong points in favor of "Salada" Tea. It is prepared entirely by machinery, and never touched by human hands save in the picking. All grocers sell it.

SUTTON.

Albert H. Ball from Lebanon, N. H., made a short visit in town Thursday calling upon several of his old friends and neighbors, who are always glad to see Mr. Ball. He spent his whole life in town until he went to Lebanon two years ago.

The Ladies' Aid society are to give their annual chicken pie supper at their hall Friday evening, Nov. 6, from 6 to 8 o'clock. This is an annual occasion and those that attend are sure to have their money's worth.

There was a large attendance at the Grange meeting Saturday evening, several being present from Lyndonville and Grange of Sheffield. The first and second degrees were given four candidates and six applications for membership were received which were referred to the proper committees and are to be acted upon at the next meeting Nov. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Holtham, who have been at their brother's, James N. Holtham, for the past few weeks, have returned to their home at Brooklyn.

B. D. Ruggles is visiting friends at Barton Landing for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mitchell from Sheffield visited at H. A. Blake's, Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. J. T. Clow preached a very strong, able sermon Sunday morning on "Christian Citizenship," taking for his text, Acts 22:28. He said that every Christian's duty was to so cast their vote as to do away with licensing the liquor traffic. He claimed that the government had no moral right to license a wrong, and that licensing a saloon was wrong. It was a strong, well-put appeal to the voter to cast his vote for the best good of the whole, regardless of any political party.

The Willoughby Wood and Lumber Company are extending their business, having recently purchased a large business at Whitefield, N. H. P. P. Thrasher, vice president and manager of the company, is to have general oversight of the business at both places, dividing the time between the two places.

We understand that there is to be a series of revival services at the Union House Free Baptist church every evening this week, the pastor, Rev. E. E. Phillips, being assisted by Rev. J. T. Clow of Sutton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carpenter attended the funeral of Mrs. Carpenter's brother at Lyndon Center last Tuesday.

EAST BARNET.

The missionary committee of the Christian Endeavor society sent $21 to Madura, India, last week for the benefit of the school there.

The school in the Brook district held an entertainment Saturday evening, the proceeds to be used in starting a school library. The program included recitations and singing, and there was a box supper. The financial result was about $5, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

WELLS RIVER.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wheeler and daughter Ruth of Lisbon, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler, Wednesday.

Mrs. Clark of Newbury was here last week to visit her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Clark.

Miss Agnes Whitelaw spent a few days of last week with friends in Bath, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Beaton of South Ryegate were in town Friday to attend the O. E. S. district meeting.

Miss Lottie Munsell came home from Newbury, Thursday night, and Friday attended the teachers' meeting in Groton, returning to Newbury, Saturday.

Percy Smith, civil engineer, has opened an office here and in Woodsville.

Miss Nellie Bailey has been confined to the house several days by a severe attack of tonsillitis.

The schools in town had a recess Friday to give the teachers an opportunity to attend the teachers' district meeting in Groton.

O. E. S. District Meeting.

The 16th annual meeting of the 5th District O. E. S., was held in Village Hall, Friday, at which time Corinthian Chapter had the pleasure of entertaining besides the grand officers, representatives of the other chapters in the district and members of Lafayette Chapter, Lisbon.

Miss Eva Sargent of Beulah Chapter, Randolph, and Miss Jackson of the Chapter in Morrisville, were also present. At seven o'clock a fine banquet was served by Corinthian Chapter. At 8:30 o'clock the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Harriet Sheldon, W. M., who gave a very pleasing address of welcome to the guests. The response was given by Mrs. Page, D. D. M., of St. Johnsbury. The opening and closing ceremonies were exemplified by the home chapter and the degree work by Mystic Star Chapter of St. Johnsbury. The officers of both chapters were highly complimented on their work and very few criticisms were made by the Grand Lecturer, Mrs. Ruby Hawley. Remarks were made by Mrs. Leland, G. M., Dr. Stoddard, G. P., and other grand officers, and last but not least, pleasing remarks were made by our small brother, Dr. Fletcher, of Bradford. Mrs. Hall of Corinthian Chapter favored the company with a vocal solo, and Mrs. Hastings of Adah Chapter gave two readings. At the close of the meeting lunch was served and the time spent socially till the departure of the guests on the morning train.

Sunday, Oct. 25, was the 10th wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. John Thomas, and Monday evening, Oct. 26, they were pleasantly surprised by a visit from their friends in South Ryegate, who came to celebrate the occasion with them.

WEST WATERFORD.

Friends and neighbors to the number of nearly 40 met to help Eddie Hastings, who lives in Waterford near the St. Johnsbury line, celebrate his 21st birthday, Oct. 28. It was a complete and very pleasant surprise to him. Games were indulged in, and music was furnished by Miss Ellis and others. Mr. Hastings was presented with $21, Mr. Bond making the presentation speech. Mrs. T. H. Lyster made the birthday cake bearing the figures '87-'08 and the words E. H. 21. Mr. Hastings responded in his pleasant manner. A good many were prevented from attending on account of the rain. Cake and coffee were served and at a late hour the company left wishing Mr. Hastings many happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ladd, Orange and Richard Ladd and Miss Irena Ellis, also the ninth grade of the West Waterford school, went to Montpelier, Thursday.

Mrs. Emily Hovey is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Beck, at St. Johnsbury.

A Card.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50 cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25 cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded.

C. C. BINGHAM, FLINT BROTHERS, M. D. PARK, SEARLES & CO., F. G. LANDRY.

NEWBURY.

Hon. Horace W. Bailey came home from Rutland, Saturday to take his part in the election Tuesday.

Mrs. Cobb and daughter Katherine, who have spent the summer here, have returned to Boston for the winter.

The board of civil authority met at the town clerk's office Saturday to complete a revision of the check list.

Mrs. Frank Page and son Hewitt spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Fulton.

Dwight Stone is getting logs to his mill intending to start up the saw in a few days.